Temperance Commitment Day

On Sabbath, February 25, in all Seventh-day Adventist churches around the world, a pledge signing campaign and membership drive will be publicly launched, inviting all members to renew their temperance vows and membership in the "American Temperance Society."

Seventh-day Adventists believe the subject of temperance in all its bearings has an important place in the work of Salvation.

Memorial Church Activities

Approximately seventy-five representatives from fourteen neighboring Methodist Churches gathered at the Elementary School last Monday evening to hear Dr. Edgar A. Potts, Lynchburg District Superintendent, and to initiate the Annual Christian Workers' Training School to be held in Memorial, March 13-17.

A pre-enrollment number of 139 was reported from the participating churches.

World Service Sunday will be observed in the Church School Sunday, with the entire Church School Offering being directed for World-wide Missionary Activity.

At 6:30 P. M.; the pastor will present the Second in the Lenten Evening Series, using as title: "The Results of Envy," with the Men's Chorus furnishing special selections. This service will close three-fourths of the Current Year.

The wedding ceremony had just been concluded and the groom thrust his hand into his pocket and inquired, "What do I owe you, Reverend?"

"We do not change for this service," replied the minister. "But you can pay me according to the beauty of the bride."

"Okay," said the young man and he handed the minister a quater. The minister raised the bridge's veil took a look and dug into his pocket.

"Here's fifteen cents change, young man."
